STIPULATED 30-DAY EXTENSION OF SUSPENSION PERIOD

It is hereby stipulated by and between the parties through their respective counsel, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board consenting thereto, that the suspension period in the above-captioned Opposition proceeding, now set to expire on May 20, 2003, be extended thirty (30) days, up to and including June 19, 2003.

GOOD CAUSE:

A Settlement/Consent Agreement has been prepared and is presently circulated for signature by the parties. The additional time provided by this extension should permit the parties to complete this process.

Counsel for Applicant contacted counsel for Opposer to discuss the thirty (30) day extension of the suspension period. Counsel for each party readily agreed to the extension and counsel for Opposer further indicated that his concurrence to the extension could be specified in this stipulation without the need for his corresponding signature.

Respectfully submitted,
LifeMax, LLC
By its Attorney,
